PRICE THREE CENTS

Cornerstone To Be Laid Tomorrow

All Narberth Churches Join in Baptist Ceremony

A notable service will mark the laying of the cornerstone of the Baptist Church Building at Narberth and Elmwood Aves., on Sunday afternoon, at 2.30 P. M.

An elaborate program has been arranged to commemorate the event to which the entire community is cordially invited.

Rev. John Van Ness, Dr. Arthur S. Walls, and Dr. M. E. McLinn will participate in the service representing the local Churches. The pastors of the Overbrook and Ardmore Baptist Churches will bring greetings from their congregations. There will also be brief addresses by Mr. William D. Gherky, Moderator of the Phila. Baptist Association, and by Mr. Ray L. Hudson, President of the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention. Dr. Elim A. E. Palmquist, Executive Secretary of the Phila. Federation of Churches, and a recent Narberth resident, will also participate.

The new Baptist Church was designed by Mr. Victor Abel, of Narberth, of the firm of Boyd, Abel and Gugert, and is being built by Wm. D. and H. T. Smedley. Cook Bros. are furnishing the plumbing and heating.

The fact that the completed building will represent one of the most beautiful and best equipped Churches of the Main Line, embodying many features adapted to community service for a seven-days-a-week program, and that it is almost entirely the product of Narberth talent lends a special community interest to the cornerstone laying tomorrow afternoon, and furnishes an excellent opportunity for Narberth residents to demonstrate by their presence at the ceremony an appreciation of a worthy product of home talent.

The Church building heretofore occupied by the Baptists on the same site was begun September, 1891, the cornerstone being laid October 10th of the same year. This was completed in the following April and operated as a Mission until October 13th, 1893, when the Baptist Church of the Evangel was formally organized. In the thirty years lacking a month that have since elapsed there has been a steady growth in membership, influence and activities. To meet the imperative need for enlarged and modernized facilities a building program was inaugurated in the Fall of 1922 which materialized in the breaking of ground for the new structure last July.

The present building will constitute only a wing of the completed new building which will embody a modern Sunday School equipment of departmental assembly and permanent class room units, a large kitchen and pantry, social room, recreation room, bowling alleys, showers, pastor's study, and a choir room as well as the beautiful new auditorium opening off the tower on the Narberth Avenue side.

MAIN LINE LEAGUE

Jupiter Pluvius Causes Postponement of Games Last Saturday

The double header at Narberth on last Saturday, when the boroughites were scheduled to play Paoli and Bala-Cynwyd, was postponed by the sudden activity of the well-known Jupe Pluv. The games will be played this afternoon, beginning with Bala-Cynwyd at 1.30 o'clock.

Should Narberth win both games, Bill Crowell's proteges will tie Phin Pyott's Pirates for second half honors and a game between Narberth and Berwyn will have to be played Saturday a week to decide the second half championship. Should Bala-Cynwyd defeat the Boroughites, then Grover Thompson's team will be tied with the Buccaneers. In this contingency the winner of the play-off will meet Narberth, first half winners, in a series of three games to decide the league championship.

School Board Only Local Contest

Both Candidates Eminently Fitted for Position

Interest in Narberth's local politics centers in the nomination of a School Director next Tuesday.

There is one vacancy, and two candidates have appeared for the position. Mr. Hervey C. Keim, Treasurer of the Board, is the present incumbent, and Dr. Leroy A. King is the other aspirant.

Last week there appeared in our columns several letters from friends of Dr. King, setting forth his qualifications. This week "Our Town" has given space to some five letters on this important subject. The letters are varied in their viewpoints, are the result of interest and knowledge, and will warrant the most careful perusal.

In answer to the letters giving Dr. King's educational experience is a clear and complete statement from Mr. Henry Rose, Secretary of the School Board, not only giving the Board's reasons for wanting Mr. Keim as Treasurer of the Board, but also setting forth the candidate's ample experience in educational matters. Two other letters from friends of Mr. Keim urge his election.

Dr. King has prepared a statement, giving in clear and unquestionable terms the principles he stands for in Narberth school affairs. This statement of a "platform" is unique in local politics, and the declaration of a policy will set a standard in such contests.

The committee backing Dr. King is publishing a letter giving their reasons for his election over Mr. Keim. In addition to setting forth again the qualifications of the candidate, they accuse the Board of self-perpetuation by the customary resignation of a member just before election.

In reviewing this enlightening bunch of correspondence, one is struck with the fact that the campaign has been conducted with dignity, and with courtesy to the opposing candidates in each case.

In deciding on the choice of a candidate, it will well repay every voter to read carefully the correspondence in this week's issue.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

The Democrats have put a full democratic ticket in the field.

KILLED ON FREIGHT

James Beaver Ferree, 14 years of age, adopted son of James B. Ferree, of Ardmore, was found dead last Sunday morning on the railroad tracks below Narberth Station.

It is believed that the boy was electrocuted while riding on a freight train early in the morning, and was knocked from the top of the car. Later the body was struck by a passing train. Coroner Neville gave a verdict of accidental death.

PAUL M. BROWN

Paul M. Brown, husband of the former Miss Mary V. McMenamin, of 104 Chestnut Avenue, died suddenly last Saturday.

Country Fair Soon Will Be Due

Will Open in the Blaze Of Thousands of Lights

Thousands! Get it? Yes, thousands count 'em. When Pres. Billy Evans presses the button that starts the Country Fair, he brings into being the greatest Country Fair and the greatest electrical Display ever seen in this part of the country. There will be Demora's Italian Band of sixty pieces. Each member is an artist, and this is the Band that Superior Park people of Chicago have engaged for the next three years. This Band has been procured at great expense, but the entire credit for obtaining this wonderful aggregation of marvelous players is due to the untiring efforts of Signor Masquale who is ever friendly to members of the Tennis Club. We never could have procured them had they not been persuaded to stop on their trip from Italy to Chicago.

The electrical display will light the heavens for miles around, and the Fair with its numerous added attractions will draw people from all of the surrounding cities and towns. It will be a marvelous aggregation, a bewitching spectacle, and will go down in history as the most stupendous, the most sparkling event since Robert Clive was born on Sept. 29th, 1725.

The general meeting at the Club House on Wednesday which was attended by one hundred and sixty-two members, proved conclusively the success of the coming Fair. The committees have all been formed, and the Junior Ladies' of the Club will be among the hardest workers. Walter Cowin has measured the grounds and has drawn up plans whereby the maximum number of attractions will be placed to the best advantage.

There will be a Tennis match between the World's Kings of the Courts, Flying Horses and real ponies for the kiddies, thirty-four (count 'em) booths laden with things to eat, things to wear, and to use. There will be carnival games a-plenty, and also the new thriller from Coney Island. See the Liberty Arch, the bevy of Bathing Beauties, the animals, the snakes, and Duke, the Dancing Duck. Duke has appeared before all the Crowned Heads of Europe, and has four attendants. Just think, Duke was insured for $10,000.00 on his recent trip across the vast Atlantic. See Zeelach, the Wonder from the Far East, see Stella's chum from the Follies, the girl who has Cleopatra backed off the boards.

Come and be a kid again. Come and drink red lemonade, eat pop corn, and feed peanuts to the elephant. Whatever comes, whatever goes, plan to be there and have the time of your young life. Better times or better Fairs are scarcer than smooth prunes. Last and best—it costs nothing to attend.

Tournament

The doubles in the annual tournament were played off last Sunday with the result that Messrs. Grugan and Allen walked off with the crown by defeating the Fretz Brothers, 6-3, 7-9, 7-5, 8-6.

The finals in the singles tourney will be staged tomorrow afternoon (Sunday) when Grugan will meet Lane.

DELAY IS CLAIMED

Postmaster Fred C. Patten has been accused of holding up delivery on copies of the "Ardmore Chronicle" sent to Narberth.

On August 31st the Ardmore paper began to flood Narberth with anti-Stites matter at the rate of 5000 copies per week. The first lot arrived in Narberth Friday night, and the claim was made, presumably by the Johnson political forces, that there was a delay of a week in delivery.

The postmaster claims that the delay was much less than stated and that it was due to lack of help and the intervention of the Labor Day holidays. A postal inspector has been investigating the matter. "The Chronicle" states that it did not make the complaint to the authorities.

Primary Election Next Tuesday

Local Man Heads One of Two County Factions

Next Tuesday, September 18th, will see the culmination of the bitter political fight for the control of Montgomery County. The mails are groaning under the load of tons of propaganda, letters, newspaper ads, and other devices to lure the voter over to one side or the other.

But the real test will come on the day of election, when workers for both sides will swarm about the polls, working personally for the various candidates.

This week "Our Town" prints a letter from Senator Stites, answering charges made against him in other newspapers shipped into the Borough. Some pages of pretty strong partisan stuff, advertising and otherwise has been withheld from publication because of the avowed neutrality of this paper in local and general politics.

The attacks of the Johnson party have been expanded to include Commissioner Hatfield, and their latest publicity accuses Senator Stites of using names unauthorized in his letters to voters.

On the other hand, the Stites' Committee claim that their entire campaign is in the interest of breaking up an autocratic regime. The history of the affair, as explained by Mr. Stites, lies in the desire of Mrs. Barclay Warburton to have the name of Mrs. Euphemia C. Dunn placed on the ticket for Poor Director. This was refused at first by the Johnson group, which led to the formation of the committee headed by Mr. Stites.

It is, undoubtedly, a case of the "outs" against the "ins," and will be decided both on the merits of the individual candidates and more, perhaps, on the leaning towards the two leaders.

For the information of our readers, we print this week a list of the candidates of each group. Two Lower Merion men are in the lists—Benjamin F. Slaw, of Cynwyd, under the Johnson banner for Sheriff, and W. G. Frankenhof, of Ardmore, on the Stites ticket for Register of Wills.

Letters to Editor

To the Voters of Narberth:

On Primary Day, Tuesday, Sept. 18, you will be asked to vote for a candidate for the nomination for School Director, on the Republican ticket.

The successful candidate at the November election will be appointed Treasurer of the School Board, to which position Mr. Keim was appointed when Mr. Marsh retired a few months ago, to fill out the latter's term which expires about December first. The school is a business as well as an educational proposition. It costs the taxpayers over $60,000.00 per year. It is therefore highly desirable, if not absolutely necessary, that a business man having an interest in school affairs occupy the position of Treasurer. After the retirement of Mr. Marsh, who had so ably conducted the financial affairs of the Board for a number of years, it was deemed wise to search for the man who was best fitted by experience to handle the school funds and accounts, and Mr. Hervey C. Keim was selected. Mr. Keim's name will appear on the ballot Primary Day, and you are urged to cast your vote for him for purely common sense if for no other reasons.

Mr. Keim is a certified Public Accountant, and as such for several years has been engaged in financial and accounting affairs of magnitude. He has been a corporation director as well as a Vice President, and has been the Treasurer of various organizations. He is deeply interested in local school affairs, his son now attending Narberth school, a daughter having been graduated with honors several years ago.

Opposing Mr. Keim for the nomination is a gentleman of high standing in educational affairs in this State, at present Professor of Social Economy at the University of Pennsylvania, a feature upon which the opposition lays great stress. As far as is generally known, however, he has had no business experience. There is a wide difference of opinion among authorities as to the advisability of professional educators holding membership on school boards, but assuming that experience in educational matters is a necessary qualification for a school director, Mr. Keim's record along this line, which is hereto appended, will speak for itself, to wit:

Graduate Juniata College, Institute of Commerce and Accounts, Central Y. M. C. A., Degree of C. P. A., State of Penna.

Teacher seven years in Grade and High Schools of Chester County, Pa., two years in Commercial Colleges, Phila., and two years Assistant Supt. of Schools in Chester County.

The people of Narberth may be congratulated upon having a man of Mr.

Keim's calibre, clean, personal record, extensive business, and educational training stand for election.

The position is no sinecure, being onerous and thankless at the best, and only a man with a high sense of public duty would be willing to accept it and do it justice.

As a matter of fact the opposition to Mr. Keim's candidacy emanates from a source which is not inspired by any consideration for the welfare of the school. Some of the instigators of the movement, having real or fancied personal grievances against one or more members of the present Board, are using the present situation to give vent to their private grudges against the Board by setting up an opponent to Mr. Keim. Their candidate, I do not believe, is aware of, or a party to, this state of affairs.

Voters of Narberth, do not permit these men who have their own axes to grind, mislead you into sacrificing a candidate who possesses in such full measure as does Mr. Keim, a combination of all those qualities which should make him the ideal school director.

Henry Ross.

To the Voters of Narberth:

Since I have been requested by a number of Narberth friends and citizens to become a candidate for the school board, and since my prospective candidacy had been endorsed by committees of citizens, I have come to the conclusion that it is my duty as a Narberth citizen to heed the request and allow the petitions, unsolicited by myself, for both the Republican and Democratic nominations to be properly filed. It is my belief that any person soliciting the vote of the public for any office should make his stand, in so far as possible, on matters pertaining to that office, clear to the voters.

If nominated and finally elected to the Narberth School Board, among other things I believe in the following course of action on the part of the Board to promote educational development in our Borough:

1. To send the students of the high school (10th, 11th and 12th grades) to the Lower Merion High School as already determined by the Board and in whose action I most heartily concur. The education and social advantages in a modern, well equipped high school of standard size are so great as compared with the present Narberth High School advantages that the experiment should be given a most thorough trial.

2. To organize the 7th, 8th and 9th grades in Narberth according to the Junior High School plan. Since this type of organization is now being established in Lower Merion Township (apart from the intrinsic values of Junior High School organizations), it will facilitate the adjustment of the Narberth students to the Lower Merion Senior High School.

3. To organize and develop our present elementary school that it may become one of the best in the suburbs of Philadelphia.

4. To pay the principal and teachers adequate salaries that will command the best qualifications obtainable.

5. To delay, just as long as possible, the construction of a new school building or additions to the present plant on account of the present inflated building costs, provided that the elimination of the three highest grades and the possible elimination of an additional grade, will provide sufficient space with the necessary renovations to give the children of the elementary grades properly equipped school facilities.

6. To keep the school tax just as low as possible by careful financial economies particularly during the present period of retrenchment in governmental affairs, so long as the highest progressive educational standards can be maintained in our school affairs.

7. To co-operate with the Borough Council and the Playground Commission to help bring about the improvement to our Public Playgrounds in order to have them available for complete use in the summer of 1924. As a member of the School Board I shall favor and vote for the Board's hiring and providing the salary of, at least in part, a competent person to properly supervise such part or parts of the public grounds available for school children—especially the younger children. Experience has proven that public playgrounds must be supervised in order to be available and safely used by children during the vacation periods.

8. To hold rigidly to the principle of publicity so that the citizens of our community may be kept fully informed relative to educational and financial needs and affairs under the control of the boards of directors, in a way comparable with the publicity given to the administration of affairs in our Borough Council which seems to be receiving favorable public approval.

If the majority of the citizens of our Borough subscribe in general to the above principles or suggestions and desire me to become a member of the Board by a nomination on next Tuesday, September eighteenth, and by an election in November, I shall aim to co-operate with the present members of the Board in maintaining and improving the administration of school affairs in our Borough and in bringing it up to the highest possible plans.

Respectfully submitted,

LeRoy A. King.

To the Voters of Narberth:

First: Why are voters of both parties working together for the election of a particular School Director?

Because party politics should have nothing to do with the education of our children. We can all unite to elect the man who by training and experience is best equipped to serve the community.

Second: Why should Dr. King be Narberth's choice?

Because of his unusual qualification to help find a sound solution of the difficult school problems facing our Board. He has been teacher, public school superintendent, and college professor. Educational Administration is his specialty. As an expert in this field, he has worked throughout the State studying and helping improve public school conditions. A year ago, when the school loan was proposed, he strongly advocated sending our high school students to Lower Merion, thus to provide better facilities for all our children and to avoid a big increase in our debt.

Both Dr. King and Mr. Hervey C. Keim, the School Board's candidate, are respected and estimable citizens. That we favor Dr. King is no reflection on Mr. Keim. It is simply because we recognize Dr. King's unusual training and experience,—probably impossible to duplicate among our citizens,—are clearly an asset which Narberth can ill afford to lose.

Third: Even if Dr. King were no better equipped than the School Board's Candidate, why should he still be Narberth's overwhelming choice?

A few weeks ago the member of our Board whose term of office was to expire this fall, resigned. The Board promptly appointed Mr. Hervey C. Keim to fill the vacancy. They now ask the voters to ratify this appointment. For years past this has been our Board's habitual practice! Mr. Keim's high character as a citizen does not change the fact that this system of self-perpetuation keeps the powers of our Board largely concentrated in one man. This is not a healthy condition, nor can it make for the best interests of our schools.

The only possible way to change this system is to elect Dr. King as the Narberth citizens' choice for Narberth's Board.

Dr. King Non-Partisan Committee.

HENRY W. SHELTON,

Chairman,

MRS. ROBT. F. WOOD,

Secretary.

P. S. Remember that "primary" means "first." The Primary Election is first not only in time, but in importance. Whoever wins the Primary will win the final election. So what ever else you do next Tuesday, September 18, we urge you to come out and vote for the man you believe will best serve Narberth's schools.

To the Editor of "Our Town":

I have read with much interest the letters in your issue of last week regarding the candidates for the vacancy in the School Board; temporarily filled by the appointment of Mr. Hervey C. Keim. We are fortunate indeed in having two such excellent candidates for the position.

Having known Mr. Keim, during the sixteen years of his residence in Narberth, I think it only due to him that his qualifications should be as fully set forth as those of his opponent have been.

A STATEMENT

To the Editor of "Our Town":

The people of Narberth no doubt feel surprised and perhaps confused at the unusual attention bestowed on them in the flood of newspapers deluging the voters of our Borough.

The publisher of the newspaper in question is a long-time confederate and ally of the Big Boss of the Republican Party in this county. The full page advertisements appearing in this paper have been unsigned and unsponsored; no doubt purposely so because the statements therein made are defamatory and half-libellous.

Although but one member of the large committee of worthy men and women making up our committee, the attacks are generally directed at me because I am leading the movement to prevent one or two men assuming to dictate to sixty thousand Republican men and women in this county who shall and who shall not run for office.

The attacks principally trot out an old worn out hagaboo, namely, that our campaign is an effort of certain so-called Vare-Ambler interests to secure control of the county. Is it necessary to say to intelligent people that this is utter nonsense. In the first place Senator Edwin H. Vare has long since died. His brother, William S. Vare, is one of a group of Philadelphia politicians, in no way concerned in Montgomery County politics. Former Speaker Charles A. Ambler retired from politics in this county more than four years ago and is no longer a factor. I have not at any time since I became interested in politics discussed Montgomery County affairs with any member of the Vare family or with any representative thereof, either directly or indirectly. Is it conceivable that Mrs. Warburton, Mrs. Lorimer, and the other high class men and women on our committee would be parties to a scheme of political chicanery?

I can say to the people of Narberth with all the emphasis at my command that the ticket supported by our committee is made up of men and women who are honest and capable, and who are eminently deserving of the support of the Republicans of our town.

Fletcher W. Stites.

To the Editor of "Our Town":

The people of Narberth are to be congratulated, for the reasons, that two such capable and high minded citizens as Mr. Hervey C. Keim and Dr. Leroy King are seeking a nomination and election for school director. In last week's issue of "Our Town" several letters told of the qualifications of Dr. King. While I do not have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with Dr. King, I feel assured that his friends know his capabilities for the place.

I am, however, in a position to speak with positive knowledge regarding the fitness of Mr. Keim. I have known him for some 15 or 20 years, and served on committees of which he was a member. He is now on the school board by appointment, and serving in the capacity of treasurer. This should certainly count with those voters, men and women, who wish to keep in office good men of broad views.

Mr. Keim is thoroughly in favor of using the School building (the borough's greatest asset) for all legitimate public educational features, and he does not take a narrow view, as he knows the school properly belongs to all the people.

I believe Mr. Keim to be a man (with a mind of his own) who will work for the best interests of the school. He is careful and deliberate in judgment, and firm in what he thinks is right. The following is a short sketch of Mr. Keim's qualifications. Graduate of Juniata College, (M. E.), Master of English. Teacher in the public schools for a number of years—3 years as a high school teacher and two years as assistant superintendent of schools of Chester County. He has always taken an interest in our school. His daughter graduated from Narberth High School Class of 1921, and he has a son in the sixth grade Elementary School. Mr. Keim has a degree of certified public accountant and acts as corporation accountant, director, vice president and Treasurer of various organizations. It seems to me Mr. Keim is pre-eminently fitted for a position on our school board and especially for the treasurership.

F. Millwood Justice.

An American Privilege

On Tuesday, September 18, every voter in Narberth can exercise his or her privilege of a voice in the selection of candidates for important county and borough administrative offices.

Not alone is this a privilege, but a solemn duty; for disinterest by the people can only result in the selection of inefficient office holders and consequent poor handling of our public affairs.

We are glad to devote this space to reminding Narberthites of the Primaries and to urge each voter, regardless of party or factional politics, to cast ballots on Tuesday for candidates who are qualified, according to the individual voter's viewpoint, to best serve the public welfare.

An old friend is waiting • • to welcome you back home • • • from sea-shore and country

Sun bronzed and wind tanned vacationists are coming home on every train. It was a grand and glorious time. Even though the days slipped by and your vacation was over before you fairly realized it, you are glad to get back to the old homestead.

To our thousands of customers and to the thousands who will most surely be our customers before vacation time rolls around again, we extend a most hearty welcome home.

Your vacation brought you increased health and vigor. Now that you're home, don't be careless with it.

Resolve now to safeguard the ruddy health and vim you brought with you from the seashore, the mountain and the farm. The best way to do that is to cultivate the Scott-Powell daily milk habit.

Make up your mind that your diet will contain at least a quart of Scott-Powell Golden "A" Grade Guernsey milk every day.

We tell you this not from a selfish motive; but because physicians and health experts are unanimous that milk is a perfect food, rich in vitamins that build bone and tissue.

Maintain the vigor you gained during the summer by drinking Scott-Powell Golden "AA" Full Guernsey Milk—the finest flavored and the highest naturally colored milk obtainable.

Scott-Powell Milk comes from the healthiest herds of the best bred cows. Every process—from milking to the delivery to your doorstep conforms to the minutest laws of sanitation and wholesomeness.

Our wonderful transportation system via huge, glass-lined trucks not only assures you milk that is as sanitary as human ingenuity can keep it, but also milk that is FRESHER BY A DAY.

Mr. Keim is a graduate of Juniata College, with the degree of M. E. (Master of English). Later he was a graduate of the Institute of Commerce and Accounts, of the Central Y. M. C. A. of Philadelphia, and received the degree of Certified Public Accountant, State of Pennsylvania.

He has had seven years' experience in Grade and High Schools of Chester County, Pa., two years in Commercial Colleges of Philadelphia, and two years as Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Chester County, Pa.

In addition to this, he has had a very varied business experience as Salesman, Corporation Accountant, Public Accountant, Corporation Director and Vice President, and Treasurer of several organizations.

Mr. Keim's candidacy therefore is based not solely on his ability as an accountant, but on years of experience in educational work, both as teacher and executive, and on a broad experience in the business world.

As a resident of our Borough for many years, he is held in high esteem. His daughter graduated from our High School with highest honors, and is now attending Oberlin College, which she entered as one of the ten holding the highest record for scholarship. His son is now a pupil of our school.

In view of the high qualifications of both candidates, I feel much as did the hero of "The Beggar's Opera" when he sang:

"How happy could I be with either,
Were t'other dear charmer away!"

A. J. LOOS.

A QUESTION ANSWERED

"Why is the Gas Company always digging up the streets?" some persons ask. Answer: It is to provide gas service for residents who would be in a bad way without it. Extensions of this service must keep pace with building development. It will be years before the revenues from these new operations are enough to pay for the Company's investment. In addition, streets must be torn up at times to provide larger mains and services in built-up sections. We do this work at big expense to serve you, and bespeak your forbearance while we are doing it.

SEPTEMBER MAGAZINES AT THE LIBRARY

"The Studio" has an interesting article on Norman Rockwell, well known for his cover illustrations in the "Saturday Evening Post"; one on samplers, colorful and modern, by Mary Northend; on old-time shoe scrapers, by E. B. Allen; and a colored reproduction of Van Veer's canvas of the mission of San Juan Capistrano, Cal., painted at the commission of Elizabeth, Queen of the Belgians.

"The Nation's Business" carries stimulating discussions of such questions as the "Dollar Wheat," Unrest in the Middle West, and the President's business philosophy. Maps by the managing editor of "Bradstreet's" show the general business condition of the country in August.

"The National Geographic," in addition to its splendid illustrations, has an article on the coasts of Corsica, an impression of a winter's stay in the birthplace of Napoleon, and a timely article on life on a fox farm off the coast of Alaska.

"The House Beautiful." With its colored cover portraying a whimsical conception of a house on the top of the world, has the usual number of interesting features, articles on furnishing, on lustre, on wall paper chinoiserie, and a description of the attic-less, cellar-less houses designed by Ernest Flagg, who also designed the Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington and the Singer Building in New York.

Other magazines received for the month are "The Scientific American," "Industry Illustrated," "Collier's," "The Ladies' Home Journal," "Popular Mechanics," "American Agriculturalist," "Sporting Life," and "The Literary Review."

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE MEN OF NARBERTH

Dear Mike:

It's a safe bet, if you had been with us last year, I would not have to write to you now to coax you to be with us when we take our annual hike to Valley Forge.

You know the full moon is dated for the 24th, but that is Monday, so we decided to have the hike Saturday afternoon. And just because you're a Baptist is no excuse for not coming. One of the fellows from the Church on Narberth Ave., was the champion horse-shoe thrower last year, and the north-siders say they will have one of the leading Methodists for their pitcher this year. We will have a hot dog on for any sect or insect.

We don't care whether you're an American or not, the Presbyterians want you to come along with them on Saturday, the 22nd.

But you mustn't forget your hardware. If you are used to a fork to eat your grub, bring one along, and, of course, a knife and a spoon are parts of the necessary and famous triplets. Other than that, all you need is enough to pay your share of the eats, a good appetite and whatever disposition you have—it's sure to be sweet by the time you have hiked back to Devon.

Of course, we will travel the same route as last year. There's a train over the Pennsy to Betzwood leaving somewhere between one and two, and it stops at 52nd Street. From Betzwood we walk to Valley Forge. After dinner we walk back to Devon, catching the first train that will stop for us.

And I'm going to let you in on something real. Jay Laughlin is at the head of the eats committee and he has always had the utmost respect for the capacity of that bunch that belong to the Presbyterian Bible Class. I know because I have been there.

But I can guarantee there won't be any shortage of full stomachs to walk back to Devon on. So, Mike, you know I mean it when I say I want you to come. And we want any man that loves the wide open spaces where he can breathe God's fresh air (that's pretty good stuff) and as you live so close to it maybe you can find a few that go over to that Church on Montgomery Pike.

And don't you believe I'm trying to get you out just to show you that all the best people are Presbyterians, because I bet you wouldn't be able to tell those who sing "Amen" after the hymns from them that don't. It's just to have a good time. We had such a good time last year we want every man to get in on it this time.

All you got to do now is to let Jay Laughlin, or some other member of the Presbyterian Bible Class know you expect to go with us.

Yours for the hike,
Luther Aloysius Knocks.

GRIEST-SJOHOLM

A wedding of interest to many Narberth people will take place this evening at seven o'clock at the Narberth Presbyterian Church, when Miss Ebba Ruth Sjöholm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sjöholm, of 211 Iona Ave., will become the bride of Mr. Harold Mahlon Griest, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. McLinn, of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, of Narberth, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. John Van Ness, of the Presbyterian Church, and Dr. Silas Daugherty.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of crepe black satin trimmed with princess lace. Her tulle veil will be caught with orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

The Maid of Honor, Miss Agnes Scott, of Philadelphia, will wear a gown of yellow chiffon, with a hat to match. She will carry a bouquet of bronze dahlias and blue delphinium.

The bridesmaids will include Dr. Geneva Groth, Miss Eleanor Cronland, a cousin of the bride, Miss Irene Rems, all of Philadelphia, and Miss Margaret Riggs, of Camden, New Jersey.

Their gowns will be of delphinium blue chiffon, trimmed with gold lace, and they will wear hats of gold lace to match. Their bouquets will be yellow dahlias tied with blue ribbons to match their gowns.

Jean and Sarah Brownell, the young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brownell, of Narberth, will attend the bride as flower girls. They will wear frocks of white chiffon and white lace hats. They will carry baskets of pink flowers.

Mr. George Griest will attend his brother as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Ernest Cronland, a cousin of the bride, Mr. Lester Haldeeman, and Dr. Joseph Shallcross, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Oscar Carlson, of McKeesport.

A reception will follow the wedding at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip the bride and groom will live in Philadelphia, where they will be at home after November 15th.

RED CROSS IN NARBERTH AIDING STRICKEN JAPAN

The S. O. S. call from our neighbors across the Pacific—suffering from one of the greatest disasters in history—is being promptly answered by the greatest mother in the world—the Red Cross.

Wherever and to whoever calamity or disaster falls, regardless of race, color or creed, history records that the Red Cross is always at the place of need with the wealth of humanity at its back—and is there promptly.

Not only has the Red Cross the power to assist and relieve those in need, but it has the knowledge of how to best administer the necessary aid.

One clear call must be answered again and must be answered promptly, and America never fails.

The American Red Cross has made plans to relieve the stricken Japanese and every one of the United States every town in each State, and every citizen in each town is now being given the opportunity to offer their might and mite and say, "I have answered the call."

What a proud boast it is for the citizen of any community to say,

"Our town always does their bit," and to be a good citizen of the town in which we live is surely the aim and ambition of every real American. It is so easy to qualify and such a satisfaction.

Community pride, the humanity of America, the call of the Red Cross, the knowledge that thousands of human beings are without homes, without food and without clothing surely impels us to give—and give generously and without delay.

The amount to be raised by the Main Line District of the Southeastern Chapter of the Pennsylvania Red Cross is $50,000, not too much considering the population of the Main Line section, Merion to Villa Nova.

The call means that every one give, even if the contribution be ever so small. Cash contributions in any amount will be received at THE MERION TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, NARBERTH, by Mr. Leuch.

Checks are to be drawn to the order of the AMERICAN RED CROSS and mailed in care of MR. FLETCHER W. STITES, 413 HAVERFORD AVE., NARBERTH.

Remember, our neighbors—the Japanese—are suffering. THE RED CROSS CALLS—GIVE.

Narberth is answering the call—do your bit.

KERWOOD IN GREEK ARMY

Holds Rank as Lieutenant-Colonel in Aviation Service

Scores of Main Line residents are watching developments in the Greek-Italian quarrel with more than casual interest, for in the well-equipped aviation service of the Greek Army their friend and favorite hero, Lieutenant Colonel Charles W. Kerwood, American soldier of fortune, will be ready to fight if the trouble is not settled amicably.

It was on the chance of getting into another war that he joined up with the Greeks early in the year.

Charley Kerwood, as he is known in this section, joined the Lafayette Escadrille in France a year before American entered the war. By the time American troops arrived overseas he held the grade of "sergeant pilot" and had won the Croix de Guerre. He applied for a commission in the American service, but, pending the transfer was shot down over the German lines.

Kerwood's home is in Gladwyne and he has scores of friends in Narberth. Before entering upon his career as a soldier of fortune he was engaged in newspaper work on the Main Line.

AND THAT'S THAT

The driveway at the station is not in first-class repair. It is badly in need of a dressing of tar to hold down the loose stones and dust, to say nothing of the improvement in the appearance of the approach.

Councilman Walton M. Wentz, Chairman of the Committee on Highways and Sewers, wrote to the Pennsylvania Railroad, asking them to fix the driveway, and receiving the following reply which, if not very encouraging, is at least brief and to the point:

"Noting yours of the 16th inst. relative to treating the driveways at Narberth with Tarvia, beg to advise this was not on our program for this year. We only treated the station drives which were unusually dusty and where the stations were on the ground floor."

From which we gather that Narberth isn't on the program even as a supernumerary. We can't even carry a spear in the railroad drama. And it is said that Narberth is the second station in importance on the Main Line! We can wait a century or two for the Essex Avenue tunnel which will reunite the divorced community; we can shut our eyes to our antique and unattractive station, but we hang our heads in shame that we merit not even a load of tar.

Come, come! Narberth commuters will boast of our excellent service to every other community they enter. They will stick up for the Pennsylvania system against any other railroad on earth—but must apologize to visitors for an unkempt entrance.

It is an efficient letter, but aren't we being shouldered aside a little roughly?

HEARD FROM THE SIDE LINES

That Otto on Sunday looked like the Nobility in his trick suit.

That the recent announcement (postal) sent out by the Secretary of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Tennis Club would remind one of the slipperiest day in Jerusalem.

That the world loves a good loser.

That if Thorney Grugan had Samson's head of hair he would lift some pretty heavy tennis titles.

That Andy Green not only wears suspenders and a belt, but carries his hands in his pockets as well.

That the new baby is doing well, but a telescope is needed for the lady to see the joke.

That many men are glad hopped hair is nix—it gets tiresome shaving the wife's neck.

That the cops at the Country Fair will have good appetites this year.

That she may be little, but she holds the record for the best story at the Club this year.

That the one who guesses the weight of the elephant at the Country Fair gets him for a house pet.

Questions and Answers

"I have read your articles on health with a great deal of interest. They are written in clear, concise language, so that anyone can understand them. Please let me have your opinion of chiropractic. Has it any real merit?"—M. H. N. D., Chicago.

Answer: What do I think of chiropractic practitioners? I might preface my answer with an old adage: "There is so much good in the worst of us, and so much bad in the best of us, that it hardly behooves any of us to speak ill of the rest of us." I do not approve of all methods used by all chiropractors; for instance, the "shock or explosion" method, or mechanical "helps."

I have seen some very marvelous results from the work of STRAIGHT chiropractors in cures effected, which medicine seemed unable to reach. I think all fair-minded physicians will concede this claim. The fact that the practice is growing so rapidly would speak for its merits. The "chiro" stimulates the nerve centers and plexus, thereby promoting better blood and lymph circulation.
